

Do you know the difference between your civic and democratic rights?

Understanding both is key to being an informed Londoner.

Civil Rights include:

The ability to start or sign petitions

Taking part in peaceful, legal protest

Being involved in community organising

Volunteering

Democratic Rights include:

Registering to vote, if eligible

Voting in local, regional and national elections

Taking part in deliberative and participatory democracy

Standing for elected office

